

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY & INFORMATION LAW PROGRAM

at Cardozo School of Law

CURRICULUM

Cardozo's Intellectual Property + Information Law Program (IP+IL) offers a rich curriculum of basic and advanced courses (see list below). Master of Laws (LL.M.) in intellectual property or Master of Studies in Law (M.S.L.) in Data and Privacy Law also are available.

Cardozo is one of a few U.S. law schools offering a Master of Laws in Intellectual Property (LL.M.) and students may write an optional thesis with the support of a faculty advisor. Cardozo offers the degree in both full-time and part-time programs, which can be completed in one, two or three years. Admission is selective and open to graduates of American and foreign law schools.

Professionals who understand data production, storage, and transfer, and can manage changes in data privacy laws and regulations, are in high demand in the U.S. and around the world. The Cardozo Master of Studies in Law (M.S.L.) in Data and Privacy Law responds to that need and addresses legal and policy issues and their compliance. <https://cardozo.yu.edu/academics-and-clinics/our-degree-programs/msl-degree>
