Banks

Banks are open from Monday to Friday from 8.30 a.m. to 1.30 p.m. In the afternoons the opening hours change from bank to bank between 2.30/3 p.m. and 4/4.30 p.m. The most of the Banks have a cash dispenser (Bancomat) outside.
It could be quite complicated to open a bank account in the case of a temporary residence in Italy. The easier and cheapest way to receive money from abroad is opening a savings account (Libretto di risparmio). However, this will not provide cheque books. Banca di Roma handles our University accounts.

The following documents:
- the ID card/passport;
- a proof of the regular enrolment at Roma Tre.

To transfer money from abroad via bank draft, international students shall give their Rome account number, the Bank code (for Banca di Roma: ABI 03002) and the appropriate CAB (Codice di Avviamento Bancario) indicating to which branch office in Rome you want the money to be transferred. Do not expect it to be a fast procedure. Any other bank you may choose would have a similar procedure.

The hottest month is July. Generally you will need jumpers plus a heavy parka/jacket and a raincoat in the Winter.
In the month of October, when central heating may not be on, it could be warmer outdoors than indoors.
