

Foreign-Educated Applicants

Applicants with degrees conferred by institutions outside the United States, Puerto Rico, or Canada are required to take the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) and must consult with LSAC regarding registration for the Credential Assembly Service.

Cardozo does not require results from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL).

All international transcripts must be submitted through the LSAC Credential Assembly Service. If you have completed any postsecondary work outside the U.S. (including its territories) or Canada, you must use this service for the evaluation of your international transcripts. The one exception to this requirement is if you completed the international work through a study abroad, consortium, or exchange program sponsored by a U.S. or Canadian institution, and the work is clearly indicated as such on the home institution's transcript. This service is included in the Credential Assembly Service registration fee. An international credential evaluation will be completed by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO), which will be incorporated into your Credential Assembly Service report.

To use the Credential Assembly Service, log in to your online LSAC account and follow the instructions for registering for the service. Be sure to print out a Transcript Request Form for each institution and send it promptly to them. More time is usually required to receive international transcripts.

Questions about the Credential Assembly Service should be directed to LSAC at either 215.968.1001 or LSACinfo@LSAC.org.
