

Cardozo School of Law

Study Abroad Finances

All students who study abroad are required to register at and pay full tuition and fees to Cardozo. Some fees to the host institution may apply.

Students may apply for financial aid to cover tuition charges as well as living expenses and travel costs for an approved semester abroad. For further information about financial aid, students should contact the Office of Student Finance in Room 1024.