NEW YORK BAR EXAM

Eligibility for Foreign-Educated Attorneys

- Section 520.6 of the Rules of the Court of Appeals for the Admission of Attorneys and Counselors at Law [22 NYCRR 520.6] contains the eligibility requirements for applicants who wish to qualify for the New York State Bar Examination based on the study of law in a foreign country. These requirements are available at the New York Board of Law Examiners [BOLE] website
<http://www.nybarexam.org/Foreign/ForeignLegalEducation.htm>
- The rules for eligibility for the New York Bar Exam distinguish between those law graduates trained in the common law in a traditional university leading to the LL.B. and those who are not.
- Graduates of the traditional three-year [or more] common law education from countries such as the United Kingdom, Ireland, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and Israel are usually eligible based on that legal education. They usually do not have to take a U.S. LL.M. degree to establish eligibility for the NY Bar Exam but must receive this determination directly from BOLE.
- Those educated in the civil-law tradition or a non-traditional or mixed legal system may qualify for the New York Bar Exam after receiving a U.S. Master of Laws degree with certain requirements, explained below.

See “Evaluation of Foreign Credentials” on next page

NEW YORK BAR EXAM

Evaluation of Foreign Credentials

All foreign-educated lawyers – whether eligible based on common law education or through the LL.M. degree -- must submit the On-Line Request for Evaluation of Foreign Academic Credentials <https://www.nybarevaluation.org/Intro.aspx>] to get a decision on eligibility for the New York Bar Exam. Applicants must submit all documentation for review by the prior May 1 for the February exam and by the prior October 1 for the July exam.

Note the following for the Required Documentation:

- You must have your official transcript sent from your home county school[s] DIRECTLY to the Board of Law Examiners. They will not accept a transcript that your law school gives to you which you forward to the Board of Law Examiners. You must provide an English language translation if the transcript is not issued in English; the translation must be by an official translator. You can send the translation directly to the Board of Law Examiners.
- You may be asked to “submit a written statement from the competent accrediting agency of your foreign government that the law school or schools you attended were recognized as qualified and approved throughout your period of study.” The BOLE already has this information for many foreign law schools; they will notify you by email after your submit your “Request for Evaluation of Foreign Legal Credentials.”
- After your Cardozo graduation, you will also have to submit your official Cardozo transcript, and other documents [the “Proof of Successful Completion of 24-Credit Program”]. You will be advised accordingly.

As part of the "on-line evaluation request" you will be given a BOLE ID number. Use it for all documents you or others submit to the BOLE on your behalf, and for any correspondence with the BOLE.

See "Degree Requirements" on next page.

NEW YORK BAR EXAM

Skills Competency Requirement and Professional Values Bar Admission Requirement

In December 2015, the Court of Appeals adopted Section 520.18 to the Rules for the Admission of Attorneys and Counselors at Law (22 NYCRR 520.18). Under this new provision, applicants seeking admission in New York must establish that they have acquired skills and professional values necessary to competently practice law. Applicants may satisfy this requirement by completing one of five separate pathways described in section 520.18. For applicants who qualify for the bar examination based upon having attended an ABA-approved law school and having satisfied the requirements of section 520.3 or based upon their foreign legal education alone under section 520.6, this requirement will first apply to those who commence their legal studies after August 1, 2016. As to foreign-educated applicants who are required to complete an LL.M. program at an ABA-approved law school in order to sit for the bar examination under section 520.6, the new requirements will apply to those who commence their LL.M. program after August 1, 2018.

How do I satisfy the skills competency and professional values requirement for admission?

An applicant for admission may satisfy the skills competency requirement by completing one of five pathways contained in Rule 520.18.

Pathway 1 allows an applicant to satisfy the skills competency and professional values requirement by submitting a certification from the applicant's law school confirming that (1) the law school has developed a plan identifying and incorporating into its curriculum the skills and professional values that, in the school's judgment, are required for its graduates' basic competence and ethical participation in the legal profession, and has made this plan publicly available on the law school's website; and (2) the applicant has acquired sufficient competency in those skills and sufficient familiarity with those values.

Pathway 2 permits an applicant to satisfy the skills competency and professional values requirement by submitting proof that the applicant completed 15 credits of practice-based experiential coursework designed to foster professional competency training. Up to 6 of these 15 credits can be earned in law school certified non-credit-bearing summer employment programs, provided those employment opportunities are certified by the law school and satisfy certain other criteria.

Pathway 3 provides that any applicant who has successfully completed the Pro Bono Scholars Program, pursuant to section 520.17 of the Court's Rules for the Admission of Attorneys and Counselors at Law (see 22 NYCRR 520.17), will be deemed to have satisfied the skills competency and professional values requirement.

Pathway 4 allows an applicant to satisfy the skills competency and professional values requirement upon completion of a post-graduate, six-month apprenticeship in a law office in the United States, in a commonwealth or territory of the United States, or in a foreign country, under the supervision of an attorney authorized to practice in the jurisdiction where the work is performed. The apprenticeship can be paid or unpaid. The supervising attorney is responsible for certifying that the apprenticeship satisfied certain criteria.

Pathway 5 provides that an applicant who has been authorized to practice law in another state, or in a U.S. territory or commonwealth or a country outside the United States, and has practiced in that jurisdiction full-time for one year, or part-time for two years, will meet the skills competency and professional values requirement.

NEW YORK BAR EXAM

Pro Bono Requirement

On September 19, 2012, the NY Court of Appeals issued a new requirement for 50 hours of pro bono service for those applicants seeking admission to the NYS Bar after January 1, 2015. This requirement pertains to any student who passes the New York State Bar Examination on or after July 2014. The court has determined that the 50 hours of qualifying work may take place in another state or country.

LL.M candidates may complete their 50 hours of pro bono work anytime from one year before to during or after their LL.M. program of study. Candidates may elect to determine if they have passed the NY Bar Exam before engaging in qualifying pro bono work, but must complete the requirements before applying for admission, which takes place once they receive notice that they have passed the bar.

The rules define qualifying pro bono work as law-related work done on behalf of low-income persons, nonprofits, or government agencies. The student's work must be supervised by an attorney or faculty. The student can satisfy the requirement through certain accredited academic programs, such as clinics/externships, or by doing pro bono work as a summer associate at a law firm. Other pro bono projects, if supervised by an attorney or faculty, may also satisfy the requirement.

Please see the FAQs in the appendix of this publication for further information. The Center for Public Service Law (CPSL) at Cardozo is always available to meet with students about pro bono projects and assist them in meeting these requirements. Click here <https://cardozo.yu.edu/careers/center-public-service-law> to learn more.

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
 Course Number: LAW 7521
 Professor: Herz, Norris, Shaw
 Credits: 3
 Pre/Corequisite: None

The Constitution suggests that Congress, the President, and the courts govern in the United States. In reality, however, we live in the "administrative state": individuals and firms (and, thus, most clients) are most immediately and significantly affected not by the actions of Congress, courts, or the President, but rather by those of administrative agencies. This course will introduce the institutions, procedures, and theories of the administrative state. We will explore the constitutional foundations of the modern administrative state, the authority of the president to dictate or influence agency activity, congressional oversight of agencies, the procedural and substantive constraints on agency rulemaking and adjudication, and the scope and availability of

Final Exam Schedule

Most final exams are given over a two-week period at the end of the fall and spring semesters. A tentative examination schedule is distributed with registration materials. This schedule is subject to change and students should not make travel plans or other inflexible plans for any time during the exam period. The final for Introduction to U.S. Law is given in October in the fall semester and March in the spring semester.

INSERT LINK TO TENTATIVE EXAM SCHEDULE

Cardozo follows a strict policy regarding rescheduling final exams. Students who have a morning and afternoon exam on the same day will not be permitted to reschedule either exam. See the Cardozo Student Handbook for the policy regarding rescheduling final exams, and plan your schedule accordingly.

Step 7: Prioritize Your Registration Requests

- The course scheduling program will process requests based on the PRIORITY you give your course requests (1st request gets highest priority, 2nd request gets 2nd highest priority, etc.).
- The course scheduling program will read your request for Alternate Course #1 if it cannot satisfy your request for Primary Request #1. If you do get into Primary Request #1, the course scheduling program will move directly to Primary Request #2.

Second Choice: Corporations

Third Choice: Contracts

Order of Preference

Step 7: Prioritize Your Registration Requests

Registration Request Strategies

- List courses in preference order. Use higher priority spaces (1, 2 and 3) for the courses you want most or those that are most likely to close.
- Place the hardest-to-get courses at the beginning. Courses that may fill up more quickly than others will be advanced intellectual property, corporate law, and dispute resolution courses. Look at course limit numbers to get a sense of the harder courses to get.
- Put your first course in Primary Choice #1 position.
- Place your second choice in the Alternative #1 position AND the Primary Choice #2 position.

COVID-19 STUDENT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Before returning to campus

The novel coronavirus, COVID-19, is a highly infectious, life-threatening disease declared by the World Health Organization to be a global pandemic. COVID-19's highly contagious nature means that contact with others, or contact with surfaces that have been exposed to the virus, can lead to infection. Additionally, individuals who may have been infected with COVID-19 may be asymptomatic for a period of time, or may never become symptomatic at all. Because of its highly contagious and sometimes "hidden" nature, it is currently very difficult to control the spread of COVID-19 or to determine whether, where, or how a specific individual may have been exposed to the disease.

Aware of the foregoing, I am voluntarily returning to Yeshiva University's campus and, if applicable, housing.

I understand that the University has put in place new safety rules and precautions in order to mitigate the spread of COVID-19, which rules and precautions may be updated at any time. While acknowledging that these rules and precautions may or may not be effective in mitigating the spread of COVID-19, I agree to comply with such rules and precautions which may include, but are not limited to, face mask/covering wearing, hand washing, hand sanitizing, and social distancing. I understand that failing to comply with these rules and precautions is a violation of the University's standards of conduct and that failing to comply could subject me to sanctions up to and including expulsion from University and/or University housing. I also understand that campus services may be limited or not available at all, and some services may only be available on-line.

I agree that if I am exhibiting any symptoms of COVID-19 or acute respiratory illness, I will remain isolated and self-quarantine until I have been symptom-free for 24 hours without the use of medication. I also will notify the coordinator of student Covid related illness at covidstudentline@yu.edu. I understand that the University may notify my parents (or other emergency contact I may have provided) if I exhibit symptoms of COVID-19 or otherwise fall ill. I also understand that the University may notify my roommates (if applicable) and other persons I may have come in contact with, if I test positive for COVID-19 or otherwise exhibit symptoms. If I chose to opt-out of contacting parents or emergency contacts or such other persons, I will email covidstudentline@yu.edu. I further understand that if I am in University housing, I may be removed from my room and asked to quarantine and/or isolate elsewhere.

I acknowledge the contagious nature of COVID-19, the fact that it can be difficult to identify in another, and the inherent risks of exposure at the University to those who may be infected with COVID-19. No party related to University (including any faculty, staff, agent, volunteer, or student) has made any representations to me regarding the safety of, or the risks of, returning to campus/housing. I voluntarily assume and accept the risk that I may be exposed to or infected by COVID-19 by returning to the University's campus/housing and that such exposure or infection may result in personal injury, illness, permanent disability, and/or even, in rare cases, death. I understand that the University will not be responsible for any medical or other expenses associated with any injury or loss I (or others) may sustain.

COURSE SELECTION WORKSHEET

The worksheet will provide space for you to enter a primary choice and an alternate choice for each course request. Choose the courses from the drop-down menu under “find a class” (see next page for more detail.)

Prior to entering your course selections, you should run a class search in Self-Service Banner to make sure you have the unique CRN for each course you wish to take. There may be multiple sections of the same course, so it will be important to know the CRN when you’re choosing courses.

NOTE: IF THIS PAGE DOES NOT LOAD CORRECTLY, PRESS THE SUBMIT BUTTON AT THE BOTTOM OF THE PAGE. THIS WILL REBUILD THE PAGE FOR YOU

Add Course/Alternates below.

You may select up to 10 courses/alternates. Enter your choices in PREFERENCE ORDER.

To add a course selection, choose a course from the Find a class drop down box. The Course Reference Number (CRN) will populate once you have made your selection. The cursor should move to the alternate box. If you do not wish to make an alternate selection for this choice, use your mouse to click in the next CHOICE box.

You can also move around the form using the TAB key on your keyboard.

Once you have made your selections of courses/alternates, click on the SUBMIT button at the bottom of the form. Your course selections will then appear on this page.

If you have previously submitted courses, they will appear below. To delete previously submitted courses, select DELETE from the ACTION drop down box, and then press SUBMIT at the bottom of the page.

To RE-ORDER your previously submitted selections, choose the new preference number from the drop down box in the “#” column, next to the action box. Press Submit at the bottom of the page.

To completely substitute a choice, choose the new course/alternate from the add course section, for the appropriate preference number. Press Submit at the bottom of the page.

For example, if you want to change your 3rd choice, enter the new choice in the CRN box for "choice3".

If you experience any difficulties with this form, please contact the Office of the Registrar at 646-592-6280 or by email at cardozoregistrar@yu.edu, or click on the "Need Help" link at the top of the page.

It is recommended that you print a copy of your submission for your records. After the program has run you will get an email from the Office of the Registrar that you can access Banner to see what classes you were enrolled in.

REMEMBER: You should list a few extra courses just in case some of the courses you most want are closed.

Double-check your submission for accuracy! For courses with more than one section, such as Pretrial Practice, be sure you sign up for the section you want. If you accidentally enroll in the wrong section, you will need to wait until add/drop to try to fix it. You should do a class search in Self-Service Banner before entering your course preferences to make sure you have the correct CRN's for each course you wish to take.

Last, the registration process will not register you for courses that overlap in time, even if the overlap is minimal! Keep this in mind when you are selecting your course preferences.

If You Require Assistance...

If you require assistance with course planning, you should contact the Office of Graduate and International Programs by e-mailing pamela.serota@yu.edu.

LL.M. FAQs REGARDING THE NYS BAR “50 HOUR RULE” ON PRO BONO

These FAQs are intended to answer questions specific to foreign-trained LL.M. students who will be seeking admission to the New York State Bar. For a more extensive FAQ on the pro bono rule, please view materials prepared by the NYS Unified Court system:

<http://www.nycourts.gov/attorneys/probono/FAQsBarAdmission.pdf>.

In this LL.M. FAQ sheet we refer to the materials on that site as “NY Cts FAQ” and then the corresponding number.

1. What is the 50 hour rule?

In short, the "50 Hour Rule" requires that all candidates who have passed the New York State Bar Examination who are seeking admission to the New York State Bar after January 1, 2015 must complete fifty (50) hours of qualifying pro bono legal service before they are eligible to be admitted to the bar.

The full text of the rule states:

520.16 Pro Bono Requirement for Bar Admission

(a) Fifty-hour pro bono requirement. Every applicant admitted to the New York State bar on or after January 1, 2015, other than applicants for admission without examination pursuant to section 520.10 of this Part, shall complete at least 50 hours of qualifying pro bono service prior to filing an application for admission with the appropriate Appellate Division department of the Supreme Court.

(b) Pro bono service defined. For purposes of this section, pro bono service is supervised pre- admission law-related work that:

- (1) assists in the provision of legal services without charge for
 - (i) persons of limited means;
 - (ii) not-for-profit organizations; or
 - (iii) individuals, groups or organizations seeking to secure or promote access to justice, including, but not limited to, the protection of civil rights, civil liberties, or public rights;
- (2) assists in the provision of legal assistance in public service for a judicial, legislative, executive or other government entity; or
- (3) provides legal services pursuant to subdivisions two and three of section 484 of the Judiciary Law, or pursuant to equivalent legal authority in the jurisdiction where the services are performed.

(c) Supervision required. All qualifying pre-admission pro bono work must be performed under the supervision of:

- (1) a member of the a law school faculty or an instructor employed by a law school;
- (2) an attorney admitted to practice in good standing in the jurisdiction where the work is performed; or
- (3) in the case of a clerkship or externship in a court system, by a judge or attorney employed by the court system.

(d) Location of pro bono service. The 50 hours of pro bono service, or any portion thereof, may be completed in any state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any foreign country.

(e) Timing of pro bono service. The 50 hours of pro bono service may be performed at any time after the commencement of the applicant’s legal studies and prior to filing an application for admission to the New York State bar.

(f) Proof required. Every applicant for admission shall file with the appropriate Appellate Division department an Affidavit of Compliance with the Pro Bono Requirement, describing the nature and dates of pro bono service and the number of hours completed. The Affidavit of Compliance shall include a certification by the supervising attorney or judge confirming the applicant’s pro bono activities. For each portion used to satisfy the 50-hour requirement, the applicant shall file a separate Affidavit of Compliance.

(g) Prohibition on political activities. An applicant may not satisfy any part of the 50-hour requirement by participating in partisan political activities.

2. What is qualifying pro bono work?

A. What kinds of tasks are covered? Qualifying work must be law related; it must use legal skills or be law-related activities that are appropriate for lawyers-in-training. See NY CTs FAQ 10. The FAQ provides some examples, which include: “...helping a low-income person complete court forms; assisting an attorney with trial preparation; helping litigants prepare for court appearances; engaging in witness interviewing and investigation; participating in a community legal education project; drafting court or transactional documents; or engaging in legal research. You may also perform law-related assignments or make court appearances that are authorized under student practice orders issued by the Appellate Division of the New York Supreme Court for the specific program in which you are performing pro bono work.” Examples of projects that meet the requirement are described in NY CTs FAQ 11.

- i. Does legal translation count? At this time, translation alone does not count. If translation is part of a more in-depth law-related project, and you are engaged in other aspects of the project, that project may count towards your pro bono hours requirement.
- ii. Do student/campus activities count? Law school activities that are supervised by a full-time faculty member (e.g. Clinics) or a licensed attorney count. Student-run projects with no attorney supervision do not meet the supervision criteria and would not count. See NY CTs FAQ 16, 21, and 22.

B. Who must supervise the work? The work must be performed under the supervision of a licensed attorney, judge, or law school faculty. See NY CTs FAQ 10 and 11.

C. Whom may I work with? This rule was put into place in order to expand and enhance the provision of legal resources to low income and disadvantaged people who would otherwise not be able to afford legal assistance or access to legal representation. However, the rule enacted is much broader and allows you to perform qualifying work with the government sector including the judiciary, legislative branches, or the executive (agencies.)

D. Where geographically may I perform my pro bono service? You may perform your pro bono work in any state within the United States or abroad. If the work is performed, in whole or in part, outside of the US, you will be required to explain in detail the nature and circumstances of your work. See NY CTs 9 and 12.

E. Must I perform all 50 hours on the same project or with the same supervising attorney? No.

While the drafters of the rule recommend that you perform all your hours in one program, you may perform work for separate entities and projects. See NY CTs 23. Each supervising attorney must complete the Affidavit of Compliance. See NY CTs 27.

F. If I received any money (stipend or salary) while performing the work, will it still qualify as pro bono for the 50 hour rule? For the purposes of this bar admission requirement, it is permissible to get a stipend or salary during for your pro bono service, provided the client or beneficiary of the pro bono work is not paying for the service. See NY CTs 14 and 19.

3. LL.M. students only study at U.S. Law Schools for one year – is there an exemption to this rule for LL.M. students? No. All applicants for admission to the New York State Bar must complete the full fifty hours of pro bono service, regardless of length of time in the U.S. course of study. The pro bono work may be performed at any time before application is made for bar admission—see NY Cts FAQ 5

4. Does volunteer experience from my home country count towards the rule? Volunteer work outside of the United States counts if it is completed up to one year before or during or after the commencement of your US legal studies (e.g., your LL.M.) and provided that the work meets the standards for supervision and law-related/legal work. If your work is conducted outside of the United States, you will be required to explain in detail the nature and substance of your work in your application for admission.

5. When should I/can I complete my required pro bono service? Foreign-educated candidates planning to acquire an LL.M. degree from an ABA-approved law school in the U.S. for the purposes of qualifying to take the NY Bar Exam may engage in their 50 hours of qualifying pro bono service one year before the commencement of the LL.M. course of study. Of course, such LL.M. candidates may perform some or all of their 50 hours of qualifying work in the United States either before or after an LL.M. course of study. Some LL.M. candidates may elect to wait until after they pass the exam before pursuing the 50 hours of pro bono service. There is generally a several month gap between receiving notice of bar passage and admission to the NYS bar as all candidates must submit a detailed application, affidavits from employers, affidavits of individuals attesting to moral character, and have an interview with a member of the Character and Fitness Committee of the appropriate Appellate Division of the Court.

6. What paperwork do I need to complete? Your supervising attorney will need to certify the hours that you spent on pro bono work by completing a Form Affidavit of Compliance with the Pro Bono Requirement. The form can be found at <http://www.nycourts.gov/attorneys/probono/baradmissionreqs.html> The affidavit must include the dates of service, number of hours completed, category of entity with whom you performed the service, and describe the nature of the pro bono work completed.

- i. When shall I obtain the Affidavit of Compliance? It is recommended that you request the supervising attorney to complete and sign the form affidavit immediately after you have completed the pro bono service as it may be difficult to locate an attorney at a later time.
- ii. What should I do with the Affidavit? Please keep the affidavit in a safe place. You will submit the affidavit as part of your application for admission after you have passed the bar exam.

7. Does Cardozo keep track of my pro bono? No; it is your responsibility to collect and track your own certification from each pro bono project that you complete.

8. How can I find out about pro bono opportunities? Resources to identify such opportunities include:

- a) Your law school's career advising and/or public interest offices
- b) PSJD.org
- c) ProBono.net
- d) Bar associations (country-wide, statewide, national)

e) for those who have accepted a post-LL.M. position with a law firm in the US, or in an international office of a US-based law firm, you should speak with the recruiting or pro bono administrators at the firm, as he or she may have pro bono projects in place for their associates and should be able to integrate you into these programs.

9. I'm on an F-1 visa, am I allowed to do pro bono? Yes, unpaid work that is considered purely voluntary and which is not replacing a paid employee is acceptable under F-1 visa regulations. For students who choose to complete pro bono service after graduating from an LL.M. program, Optional Practical Training (OPT) status does allow for unpaid volunteer legal work.

If you choose to participate in any pro bono work as part of an off-campus work experience for which you receive a stipend, course credit, or other form of compensation, please confirm with your school's international student office that you are complying with visa regulations.

10. Which Cardozo programs are likely to count?

Public Sector Externship Program and NYC Law Department (Trial Divisions) Externship Program:

Student Run Pro-Bono Projects: Student run pro bono projects provide access to justice for many who would otherwise proceed in hearings without the benefit of a trained advocate advocating on their behalf.
