International JD Student Financial Aid Application 2023-2024

This application is only to be completed by those J.D. students who are not United States citizens or permanent residents and/or have not been granted refugee or asylum status by the US. Students who hold dual citizenship with the US and another country must file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (www.fafsa.gov).

Please list all figures in US dollars, and do not leave any questions blank – enter a zero to indicate a lack of funds. Return this completed form and supporting documentation to cardozostudentaid@yu.edu. Supporting documentation must include copies of your bank statements (last 3 months) and proof of income (2021 tax return). If married and/or receiving financial support from parents or other family, please include their financial supporting documentation. Statements and documents should be in English.
