Rome is the hub to Europe and the Mediterranean basin.

- International student body
- Hundreds of Erasmus students studying at Roma Tre each semester
- Wide range of law courses in English, a rarity in the legal field in Europe.
- Typically our (small) SLR3 courses have students from 8 to 10 different countries.

STUDYING LAW AT ROMATRE

20 courses and seminars in law taught entirely in English in Rome, the international PhD programme, and study-abroad opportunities for Roma Tre students in Australia, China, Japan and the US

Roma Tre students continue to excel in international moots and other competitions, and in 2022, 2023 and 2024 have won the Italian national rounds, emerging as number ONE in the Jessup International Moot Court Competition, winning the national title, to proceed to the international rounds in Washington.

Rome is an international hub, all of Europe is yours, and you are in the center of Italy for a time long enough to discover its hidden beauty that very few know.
