CARDOZO LAW

PART I:

Understanding the LL.M. Curriculum & New York Bar Requirements

UNDERSTANDING THE CARDOZO CURRICULUM

CARDOZO CURRICULUM

LLM students choose courses from the Cardozo J.D. Curriculum, including:

- Core Doctrinal Courses (known as "first year" or 1L courses because they are required in the first year of J.D. study). For example:
 - Civil Procedure
 - Constitutional Law (I or II)
 - Contracts
 - Torts
- Upper-Level Courses which provide variety and depth to allow for specializing in specific areas of law. For example:
 - Copyright Law
 - Trademark Law
 - Evidence etc.

LL.M. and Exchange students can choose courses from both, core courses and upper-level, subject to some limitations. See "Comments" section in the Fall List of Courses.

- Clinical and Experiential Learning
 - International students in their first semester of the LL.M. are not eligible to apply for clinics. They will be eligible during the second semester of their studies. Info-sessions about clinical application and procedures will be held during the semester.
 - Domestic LL.M. students are eligible for clinics and externships during their first semester. Contact: Corina Bogaciu, corina.bogaciu@yu.edu, in the Externship Department for more details.

Fall 2025 Open Registration Window:

June 18th at 9:30 AM (EST) - June 20th at 12:30 PM

- You MUST enter your chosen courses to your worksheet within this window of time (not before and not after)! You will be able to see your schedule a few days after the Open Registration Window has closed.
- You will have another chance at readjusting your Fall schedule during the Add/Drop Period (which will begin in mid-July and end after the first week of classes in August). We aim to give you as much flexibility to readjust the schedule and take the courses you want!

COURSE CREDIT REQUIREMENTS

PART-TIME VS. FULL-TIME ENROLLMENT

LL.M. students on F-1 or J-2 visas must be full-time students.

Part-time students should enroll in no more than 8 credits per semester, and must complete the LL.M. degree within 24 months if they seek to meet the New York Bar requirements.

- ◇ If you are planning to apply for FAFSA (Federal Student Loans for US Citizens and Green Card holders), you will need 6 credits minimum, each semester.

Full-time students can enroll in 9 to 14 credits per semester, and can complete the degree within one academic year. One credit is equal to 54-minutes/week in-class instruction.

- ◇ Full time international students who wish to take more than 14 credits per semester need permission in writing from Dean Val.

All LL.M. degree candidates must complete a minimum of 24 credits. At least 18 credits must be in-class credits.

- ◇ Full-time students are charged on a per semester basis.
- ◇ Part-time students are charged a per-credit rate.

NY Bar limitations on credits that can apply towards the 24-credit program requirement:

NEW YORK BAR EXAM

ELIGIBILITY FOR FOREIGN-EDUCATED ATTORNEYS

Section 520.6 of the Rules of the Court of Appeals for the Admission of Attorneys and Counselors at Law [NYCRR 520.6] contains the eligibility requirements for applicants who wish to qualify for the NY State Bar Exam based on the study of law in a foreign country. These requirements are available on the NY Board of Law Examiners' [BOLE] website, here:

<https://www.nybarexam.org/Foreign/ForeignLegalEducation.htm>

NY BOLE HAS THE AUTHORITY TO DETERMINE IF YOU ARE ELIGIBLE TO SIT THE NY BAR. YOU MUST APPLY ON THEIR WEBSITE FOR AN EVALUATION OF YOUR CREDENTIALS TO DETERMINE ELIGIBILITY.

The eligibility rules distinguish between those law graduates trained in common law in a traditional university leading to the LL.B. degree, and those who are not.

- Graduates of the traditional common law education (with 3 years or more of law study) from countries such as U.K., Ireland, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, and Israel are usually eligible based on that legal education. These students may not be required to complete an LL.M. in the U.S. to establish eligibility, however, students must receive determination directly from BOLE.
- Graduates of civil law education systems, non-traditional or mixed legal system may qualify for the NY Bar Exam after receiving an LL.M. degree from an ABA accredited school. Cardozo School of Law is an ABA accredited and all our programs meet the NY Bar requirements. Students must receive eligibility determination directly from NY BOLE.
 - Evaluation of Foreign Credentials website can be found here: <https://www.nybarevaluation.org/Intro.aspx>

Strict Deadlines for NY BOLE Review:

May 1 for February bar exam takers

October 1 for July bar exam takers

All required documents must be received by BOLE by the deadline! Review takes 6+ months!

EVALUATION OF FOREIGN CREDENTIALS

As part of submitting the online evaluation request, you will be asked to set up a BOLE account, which will generate you a unique BOLE ID #. This BOLE ID # should be noted on all documents required by BOLE.

Here's a list of documents that BOLE may require for your eligibility:

- Official transcripts (translated in English, stamped, signed, and sealed) sent directly by your home university to BOLE.
- Degree Certificate, if the official transcript does not clearly state the degree awarded.
- Proof of admission to practice law in your home country, or proof that you have fulfilled all educational requirements to practice law in a foreign jurisdiction, even if you have not been admitted to practice law in that country.
- Proof that the accrediting agency in your home country recognizes your law school as qualified and approved by the government.
- LL.M. degree certificate and official transcript sent by Cardozo to BOLE on your behalf, Upon completion of your LL.M. degree at Cardozo, and when the final grades have been submitted the Registrar will certify your LL.M. attendance directly to BOLE.
- All foreign transcripts, certificates, and attestations must either be in English or accompanied by an official English translation (with a sworn and certified attestation by the translator that it is an accurate translation).
- These examples are only listed here to help guide you, but you must follow BOLE instructions and each case depends on the educational requirements of the home country, so please follow up with NY BOLE directly.

STEPS BEFORE REGISTRATION

PREPARATION

1. Read carefully this LL.M. Curriculum Guide to make sure that you understand the requirements of your program and NY Bar required courses that apply to you.
2. Attend at least ONE LL.M. Curriculum and Registration Workshop or watch the recording.
3. Make sure that you do not have any holds on your account that will prevent you from registering!

5. Make sure that your computer is set to English language or else Banner links may not work.

REGISTRATION

1. Gather all the materials that you will need for your semester registration.
2. Prioritize your courses; include some alternatives.
3. Pay attention to deadlines and read all our emails and reminders including those from the REGISTRAR!
 - ◇ Fall 2025 JD & LLM Course List (found on the Cardozo Registrar Website: <https://cardozo.yu.edu/sites/default/files/2025-06/Fall%202025%20JD%20%26%20LLM%20CourseList%206-12-2025.pdf>).

 - ◇ Write down the Course number and CRN # when you plan your schedule (see columns titles of the Fall 2025 LLM and JD Course List.)

Here is an example of the LLM & JD Course List and its columns and comments that you must pay attention to:

PRIORITIZE YOUR COURSES

The registration process is a computerized system where your request will be processed in order of the priority ranking that you list. So your Primary Course Choice gets the highest priority followed by the next alternative (if the previous choice is not available), and so on.

The computerized system will take your Alternate Choice as an option if there is no seat available for you in the previous Primary Course Choice. So for each Primary, you must list an Alternate Choice. If you want to take Trademark, Corporations, Contracts and Media Law for example, you must repeat the Alternate Choice, in the next Primary Course Choice. Place Intro to US Law at the end, because you will always have a seat there as an international student.

- | | |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. Trademark | Alternate 1: Corporations |
| 2. Corporations | Alternate 2: Contracts |
| 3. Contracts | Alternate 3: Media Law |
| 4. Media Law | Alternate 4: Introduction to US Law |
| 5. Adv. LLW LLM I | |

What to keep in mind when prioritizing courses in your schedule?

- Use higher priority spaces (1, 2 and 3) for the courses you want most or those that are most likely to close.
- See "Cap" column on the Fall 2025 LLM and JD List of Courses to determine the capacity of that class. If it's offering 100 seats, chances are it won't be closing fast. But if it has just a few seats, and you really want to take that course, you should prioritize it in spaces 1 or 2 of your Worksheet.
- Put your first course in Primary Choice #1 position.
- List one or two extra courses just in case you cannot get into all the courses you want.
- Remember, during the Open Registration Window \(June 18th to June 20th\) you are only submitting your preferences in the Worksheet of Banner. Your schedule will be compiled by the computer based on your preferences. Then during ADD/DROP Period which starts in mid-July (and last for a month or longer), you will have a lot of time to go back and make changes to your schedule.
- The following pages include all the instructions that Registrar has shared with us, on how to proceed with your selections.
 - Some instructions below may sound repetitive, but the Registrar's steps apply to ALL students, (JD and LL.M.s). The highlights and reminders above are specific to LL.M. and Exchange students, and we want to make sure you have more clarity and examples relevant to your planning. Thank you for your understanding!

HOW DOES LOTTERY REGISTRATION WORK?

HOW TO RANK COURSE CHOICES

When you submit your course selection worksheet in Self-Service Banner, you are not actually registering. You are indicating the classes you want to take in order of preference.

Actual enrollment is not done on a first-come, first-serve basis; it makes no difference if you were the first or the last person to submit your preferences during the registration period. Once the period for submitting preferences for your group is over, the actual registration is done by a computer program.

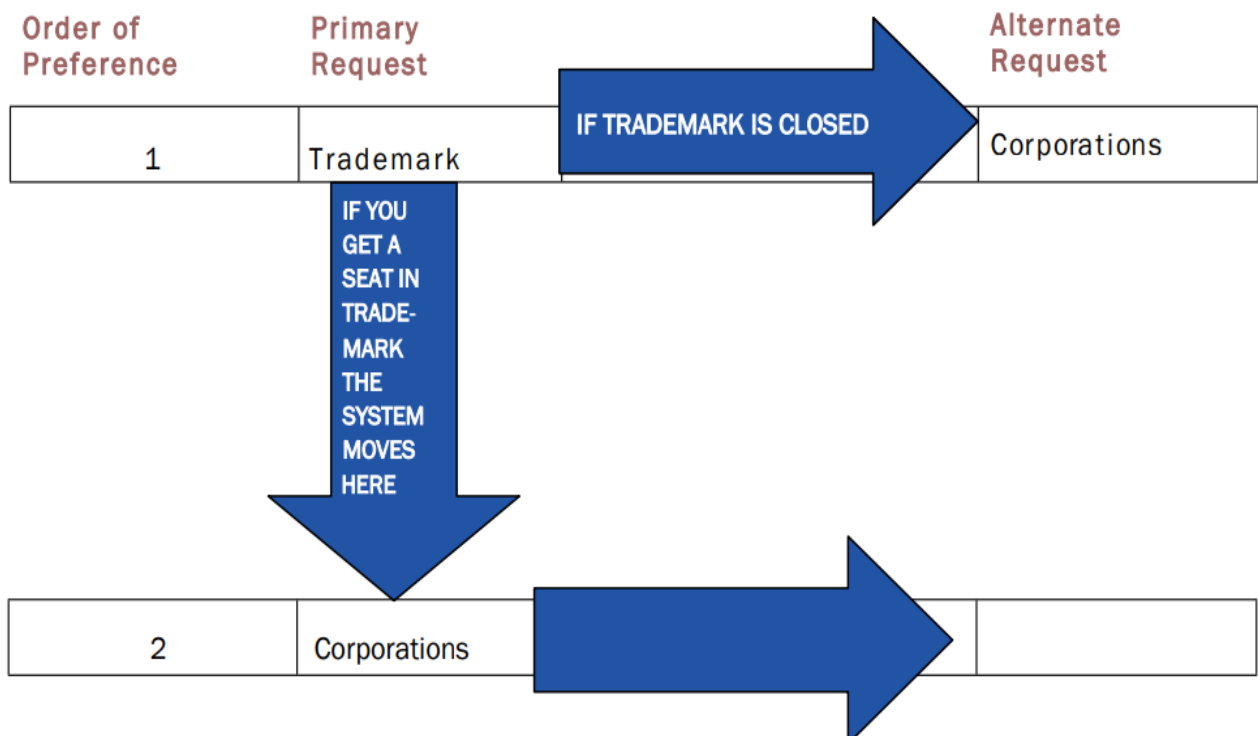

The program begins by going through the submissions one by one, in random order, placing people into their first choice classes. If someone's primary first choice is unavailable, it will turn to the student's alternate first choice. If that is unavailable, it moves on to the next student. The next time through the pile, it will begin with those students, if any, who did not get assigned a course on the previous pass. Note that the computer will only try to register you for an alternate selection if your primary choice is not available.

FOR EXAMPLE:

PRIORITIZED COURSE CHOICES

FIRST CHOICE: TRADEMARK

SECOND CHOICE COURSE: CORPORATIONS

Once the program makes it through every student's first choices and alternative first choice, the process begins again. The computer goes through the class again, signing people up for a second course. It reshuffles the students each time it makes a "pass" through the list of students; however, it will place those who did not get a course choice (either primary or alternate) in the previous round ahead of all those who did.

For most people, most of the time, the right strategy is to put your first choice course in the Primary Choice #1 position and to put your second choice course in both the Alternative # 1 position and the Primary Choice #2 position. For example, if the course you most want to get into is Real Estate Reporter, and the next most important course to you is Negotiation, you would fill out the form as follows:

| | |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| Primary Choice #1: Real Estate Reporter | Alternative #1: Negotiation |
| Primary Choice #2: Negotiation | Alternative #2: 3rd choice course |

In this way, if Real Estate Reporter is not available when the program gets to your submission in the first round, it will automatically try to register you for your first alternative, Negotiation. However, if you do get in to Real Estate Reporter, then, because you placed Negotiation in the Primary Choice #2 position, the program will try to register you for it during the second round. You may repeat this approach – i.e., putting your third-choice course as Alternate #2 and Primary Choice #3, etc. – until you run out of courses for which you wish to register.

There are two basic circumstances in which this approach is inappropriate. First, suppose you want to take a particular course that has more than one section; you would rather be in one section than the other, but the key thing is to get that particular course. In this circumstance, you should list one section as your Primary Choice and the other as your Alternate Choice at the same level. Make sure you do not list the same section twice.

Example: You want to take Contract Drafting, but do not care which section, A or B, and you also would like to take Real Estate Reporter and Trademark. In this situation, you would fill out the form as follows:

| | |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| Primary Choice # 1: Contract Drafting A | Alternative #1: Contract Drafting B |
| Primary Choice # 2: R.E. Reporter | Alternative #2: Trademark |
| Primary Choice #3: Trademark | Alternative #3: 4th choice course |

The second setting in which you would not put your second choice course as both Alternative #1 and Primary #2 is when you are interested in two courses that meet at the same time. For example, suppose you want to take Entertainment Law and Real Estate Finance, which meet at the same time. Your first choice is Entertainment Law, but if you can't get that you would like to take Real Estate Finance. After that, you are interested in Trademark and then Legislation. You would not list Real Estate Finance as your Primary # 2 since, if you get into Entertainment Law you cannot also take Real Estate Finance due to the time conflict, and so, would be wasting your Primary # 2. In these circumstances, you would fill out the form as follows:

| | |
|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Primary Choice # 1: Entertainment Law | Alternative #1: Real Estate Finance |
| Primary Choice # 2: Trademark | Alternative #2: Legislation |
| Primary Choice #3: Legislation | Alternative #3: 4th choice course |

HELPFUL REMINDERS

- Put your courses in preference order!
- Do NOT list permission only classes (see the course selection FAQ's document for more on this).
- Pay attention to the enrollment caps listed in the J.D. course lists. Smaller courses are often more likely to fill up than large ones; drafting and simulation courses are generally the hardest classes get into. Large core courses (Corporations, Evidence, Tax, Con Law II, Copyright, Trademark, Crim Pro, etc.) will generally have sufficient spaces.
- Be sure to double-check your submission for time conflicts. This is one of the leading reasons that students end up not registered for a desired course. The computer will not register you for a course that has a time conflict, no matter how small, with another course for which you are already registered.
- Be sure to check all pre- and co-requisites and other limitations listed on the course list. You are responsible for making sure that you have met the requirements for enrollment.
- Putting the same course and section in multiple primary choice positions will not increase your chances of getting the course. You will either get it or not on the pass through at its highest listing, so repeating it is a waste of your chances for other course preferences.
- If you are registering after the initial 3L/LL.M. registration, be sure to do a class search in Banner Self-Service to see which courses are already closed. If you attempt to register for a course that is already closed, you will, of course, not get in and you will have wasted a chance to get something else.
- You should list a few extra courses just in case some of the courses you most want are closed. You will not be registered for more than 16 credits, and you will have the opportunity to drop any "extra" courses during online add/drop. If you do end up being registered for less than 12 credits, you can always add courses during add/drop, but you may have fewer options at that point.

COURSE PLANNING

Before signing into Banner (see below), plan out the courses you want to take:

| | Primary Course Name | Number of Credits | Alternate Course Name | Number of Credits |
|---|---------------------|-------------------|-----------------------|-------------------|
| 1 | | | | |
| 2 | | | | |
| 3 | | | | |
| 4 | | | | |
| 5 | | | | |
| 6 | | | | |
| 7 | | | | |

Remember: during lottery registration, students can only register for 16 credits. The registration program will stop adding courses from your list once it reaches the point where adding another course would put you over 16 credits.

COURSE SELECTION WORKSHEET

The list of courses you chose will now appear with an action button. Until the end of the LLM registration period, you may edit this list by deleting a course and replacing it with another course.

To change one of your selections, you have to first select “delete” from the drop-down menu under the “action” column and click “submit” at the bottom of the worksheet. This will delete both the choice and the alternate. You can then go back to the worksheet and add a choice and alternate course.

In the example below, choice 1/alternate 1 is being deleted. You would then go back to the worksheet and select another choice 1 and alternate 1 and click “submit”. Even if you are only changing one of the courses (i.e. you want to change choice 1 but not alternate 1), you need to delete the entire row, select a new course for choice 1, and then re-select the same course for alternate 1. Always remember to click “submit”.

At the end of the registration period for LL.M students, you will be able to log back into Banner and look at your course schedule. There you will see which courses you got into and can make a plan for whether you wish to add or drop any courses once the Add/Drop period begins.

IMPORTANT STEPS FOR SEMESTER EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Exchange students have a different registration time period than the LL.M. students. Rather than completing the Course Selection Worksheet online, during the Open Registration Window you will follow these two steps:

1. During Open Registration Window (JUNE 18 - 20), make the same list of Priorities and Alternatives and email it to Dean Val Myteberi at Myteberi@yu.edu. Dean Val will share it with the Registrar to signal to them that you have an interest in those chosen courses.
2. During the Add/Drop Period in July, you will then follow the steps above to log into Banner and click on Add/Drop option to add your selections to your schedule. If a class is closed, you will have to choose another alternative. The ABA prioritizes JD and LL.M. students in Open Registration Window, but all Exchange students end up in great classes, and there are so many choices in the Curriculum, so you should not worry!

If You Require Assistance...

- If you require assistance with course planning, (and after you have carefully read this GUIDE) you should contact the Office of Graduate and International Programs by contacting Dean Val at: myteberi@yu.edu or call 646.592.6424.

Office hours are:

Monday - Thursday (9 AM - 5:30 PM EST)

Friday (9 AM - 2:30 PM EST)

- If you encounter any problems with registering via the Banner website, you should contact the Office of the Registrar by emailing cardozoregistrar@yu.edu.
- If your question concerns a Financial hold, you should contact the Office of Student Finance by emailing cardozostudentaccounts@yu.edu.
