Professional Experience

The Legal Aid Society New York, NY

Staff Attorney, Special Litigation Unit – Decarceration Project June 2018 – December 2020

- Developed and implemented strategies for challenging bail determinations in an effort to eliminate unconstitutional pre-trial detention, including through bail applications, bail packages, bail reviews, referrals to alternatives to detention, filing of bail writs, appeals, and motions for interim relief, and instructing attorneys on such strategies.
- Worked with social workers to develop bail packages by finding programming and presenting diagnoses and treatment plans.
- Supervised students from Cardozo Criminal Defense Clinic working on Decarceration Project assignments.

Staff Attorney (Felony-Certified), Criminal Defense Practice 2010-2015, 2017-2018

- Represented over 2,200 indigent clients from arraignment to resolution, including hearings and trials.
- Investigated cases, represented clients at proffer sessions and collateral proceedings, and strategized to provide holistic advocacy.
- Negotiated with prosecutors and judges to obtain favorable plea bargains and sentences.
- Worked with social workers and other Legal Aid staff members to ensure legal and non-legal client needs were met to the highest extent practicable.

Criminal Immigration Specialist (1 yr. rotation), Immigration Law Unit June 2015-August 2016

- Provided legal counsel to attorneys and non-citizen clients on the potential immigration consequences of their criminal cases.

Staff Attorney, Parole Revocation Defense Unit

Sept. 2007-Oct. 2010

- Represented over 1,200 indigent clients from arraignment to resolution.
- Advocated for clients in contested hearings, including witness examination, presentation of evidence, and negotiation of mutually-favorable dispositions.
- Worked with other staff members to secure access to alternative-to-incarceration programs and services.
