Distance Education Policy:

* Any Cardozo course that is offered in an all-remote format counts as a "distance education" course. JD Students are recommended to take no more than 15 credits in courses offered solely in a remote format. Students are responsible for keeping track of how many such credits they earn. Distance education courses are clearly marked in registration course lists and in the online registration system.

The New York Court of Appeals limits the number of credits that students who wish to be admitted to practice in NY can take via "distance education" to 15 credits. Students are responsible for abiding by the 15-credit limitation if they wish to take the New York bar exam. Other states' requirements may differ and students should make sure to abide by any limitations imposed by states in which they may seek admission to practice.

LLM students may not count credits they have earned for online courses towards the NY bar requirements.

ATTENDANCE IN ALL WINTER COURSES IS MANDATORY

Part-time LLM students will be charged the per-credit tuition rate for winter courses. LLM students should contact the Office of Student Finance for more details.
